

LHA screens all applicants' criminal history. If it shows that they may not be a suitable resident, their application may be denied. Applicants are automatically denied for certain crimes, including:

Eviction from public housing for illegal drugs

Current use of illegal drugs

Methamphetamine production

Sex offenses requiring sex offender registration

A record indicating a pattern of alcohol abuse

Misdemeanor or drug crimes

Felony drug crimes

Sexual assault

Felony assault

Misdemeanor assault

Arson

Homicide

Burglary

Robbery

Armed robbery

Kidnapping

Prostitution

Domestic abuse

Any other felony convictions

Any crimes that indicate habitual criminal behavior